

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sergeant Myron F. Liebert's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Myron F. Liebert devoted more than 31 years of his life to the service of this state and country while serving in numerous positions with Battery A 1/147th Field Artillery. He also served as a welder with the 665th Maintenance Company (GS) and participated in several state activations in support of emergency operations; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, Sergeant Liebert continues to give of himself; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Sergeant Myron F. Liebert for more than 31 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 1, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-first Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.
